2 Corinthians 9:1-5

9 I really don’t need to write to you about this ministry of giving for the believers in Jerusalem. ²For I know how eager you are to help, and I have been boasting to the churches in Macedonia that you in Greece were ready to send an offering a year ago. In fact, it was your enthusiasm that stirred up many of the Macedonian believers to begin giving.

³ But I am sending these brothers to be sure you really are ready, as I have been telling them, and that your money is all collected. I don't want to be wrong in my boasting about you. ⁴ We would be embarrassed—not to mention your own embarrassment—if some Macedonian believers came with me and found that you weren't ready after all I had told them! ⁵ So I thought I should send these brothers ahead of me to make sure the gift you promised is ready. But I want it to be a willing gift, not one given grudgingly.

This is the Word of God for the people of God.
Thanks be to God for this Word.

Gracious and generous God, we give you thanks for the gift of salvation given to us through our Savior Jesus Christ. Help us to live into the calling we have – to be your church and to bring your kingdom here. Multiply these offerings and all that we give so that those who receive are abundantly blessed as are we, the givers. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

MARK YOUR CALENDARS!

Our church conference will be held Saturday, November 5, 2022 at 10:30 a.m. via Zoom, Presiding Elder Rev. Hannah Lee. Church Conference Booklets will be available at the church and a pdf of the booklet will be available on our website by October 30th. Zoom information will follow.

Releasing God's Blessings

We often think of blessings as things we receive. While it is true that God, by grace, freely gives us all that we have, we are not just passive recipients of God's blessings! Just as God blesses us through people in our lives, so does God promise to bless others through us. When we live from a place of gratitude for God's gifts and trust in God's provision, we can be agents of God's blessings in our world. Join us for this companion Bible Study to this upcoming Fall Worship Series.

Call the church office to register.
