

For God is the one who provides seed for the farmer and then bread to eat. In the same way, he will provide and increase your resources and then produce a great harvest of generosity in you.

PRELUDE “Festival Prelude on ‘Ein Feste Berg’” Henry Repp
(Faulkes Wilson)

GREETING Rev. Todd Lattig

*CALL TO WORSHIP (based on Matthew 6:28-34) Kathleen Meredith

We are blessed, not because we have everything we want,

But because God provides everything we need.

Consider the lilies of the field and how they grow.

And yet God adorns them so radiantly.

So don't let questions of doubt and lack worry your soul,

God knows exactly what we need.

*OPENING HYMN “Draw the Circle Wide” W&S 3154

*OPENING PRAYER Kathleen Meredith

God, you are our source and everything else is our resource. You are an unlimited supply of grace, love, joy, and all that we need in our lives. Nothing can compare to you. Nothing comes close.

There is no shortage in you. As we acknowledge that we are blessed, may we be generous in sharing our resources with others.

Amen.

SCRIPTURE READING Kathleen Meredith

2 Corinthians 9:6-10

⁶ Remember this—a farmer who plants only a few seeds will get a small crop. But the one who plants generously will get a generous crop. ⁷ You must each decide in your heart how much to give. And don't give reluctantly or in response to pressure. “For God loves a person who gives cheerfully.” ⁸ And God will generously provide all you need. Then you will always have everything you need and plenty left over to share with others. ⁹ As the Scriptures say,

“They share freely and give generously to the poor.
Their good deeds will be remembered forever.”

Releasing God's Blessings

We often think of blessings as things we receive. While it is true that God, by grace, freely gives us all that we have, we are not just passive recipients of God's blessings! Just as God blesses us through people in our lives, so does God promise to bless others through us. When we live from a place of gratitude for God's gifts and trust in God's provision, we can be agents of God's blessings in our world. Join us for this companion Bible Study to this upcoming Fall Worship Series.

Call the church office to register.
